

Adrian Joseph Romo Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $500

Adrian graduated with honors from Humboldt State University in 2018, completing a degree in Kinesiology with emphasis in Pre-Physical Therapy and minors in Psychology and Native American Studies. Adrian was active in numerous clubs and activities across campus, acted as an Activities Student Assistant and even served as a mentor. However, it was his involvement in ITEPP that provided him with a home away from home and created important lifetime relationships. His family hopes to extend Adrian's deep, life-long desire to help other and support his community through this scholarship, thereby assisting students in successfully completing their degree while they actively participate in ITEPP.

Candidates who meet all of the following criteria are eligible:

- A current HSU undergraduate or graduate student, who will be attending HSU next academic year.
- Must be a Native Indigenous student enrolled in ITEPP/ Native American Center for Academic Excellence for a minimum of one year.
- Must display qualities of leadership and significant involvement with building and supporting the ITEPP student community.
- Demonstrate financial need.
